We are virtual neighbors enabling mature adults to come together to LEARN, PLAN, and SERVE with spirit and dignity.

From the Director

Marilyn Olson, Executive Director

Love Your Neighbor

February is a great month to invite a friend to come with you to a VillagesOKC happening. There are many opportunities to stay informed. Love Your Neighbor; tell them about VillagesOKC!

Senior LifeSkills Learning, at Our Lords Lutheran Church (Hefner and May) on Monday February 20 will feature Herb Magley from the Alzheimer Association who is a geologist and presents a brain stimulating discussion about fascinating rocks.

CareGiver Ambassadors, laymen from churches and temples, are taking reservations for the next meeting in March. We have a presentation to help us build a library of caregiver information and resources to share.

Our 32nd, four week GIFT Workshop begins on February 7 at First Bethany Bank and Trust. The bank includes lunch which allows a little more conversation time to ask questions of the attorneys and other guest professionals. VillagesOKC members can attend as a "refresh" at no cost but registration is required.

The hugely popular iPhone and iPad Technology Workshops will be held monthly in Edmond at Mitch Park and in Bethany at VOKC office. Space is limited, so register today.

On March 29, we will again hold a Pinning Ceremony for 350+ Vietnam Era Veterans who served in any branch of service, any where in the world between November 1955 and April 1975. The event will be at the Oklahoma History Center. Please call or email names/phone numbers of veterans to info@villagesokc.org

Register now for February Women's Coffee, Restaurant Meet-ups and See the City Tours. The In-Home, brown bag Game Night in January was a roaring success; another is scheduled in February. Register now.

Brigadier General Ben T. Robinson is joining the VillagesOKC board. He and his wife Linda have both joined and will be a great asset to membership with her passion for serving. As a docent at the Western Heritage Center and Cowboy Hall of Fame, General Robinson is passionate about the Constitution and our American History. His special VillagesOKC Tour this month includes lunch.

Love Your Neighbor and invite them to join you at one of these events.
